

[Free pdf] Felon-Attorney

Felon-Attorney

The Arthur A. Duncan II Esq.
audiobook | *ebooks | Download PDF | ePub | DOC

DOWNLOAD

+

READ ONLINE

#1029996 in Books 2015-11-03 Original language: English PDF # 1 8.90 x .80 x 5.90l, .85 #File Name: 1631771876256 pages | File size: 72.Mb

The Arthur A. Duncan II Esq. : Felon-Attorney before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Felon-Attorney:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. AmazingBy CustomerLoved it. Being from Buffalo myself, having lived a very similar life and ultimately turning my life around and becoming successful in a legitimate way made this book all the more intriguing to me. Great read for all audiences!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy Customerinspirational story, well written and insightful!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. An easy read and entertainingBy JonathanVery motivational. An easy read and entertaining.

From hustling crack on a corner to practicing law in a courtroom this is my story! My journey will inspire you! I am living proof that despite your past, your dreams can still come true. This book is a MUST read for parents who want to inspire their children, along with mentors, coaches, teachers, professors, administrators and pastors to share with others. Also judges, parole or probation officers who seek to inspire someone that has some legal issues will reference my story. But most importantly, any ex-con or felon or a person with a criminal record in or out of jail, can read my story and be inspired and will find hope. My story begins as I escape the violence of the crips and bloods street gangs in South Central LA and the abuse of a cocaine addicted stepfather; only to go back to Buffalo, NY and perpetuate both ills by becoming a drug dealer myself. Ironically, I became a part of what victimized my family and me in Los Angeles. I risked it all for material gains and lived life on the edge. I wound up in prison and had to put my life back together. While incarcerated, I found the God in me that I had long buried. After 3 years, I was released back into society and tempted by my old lifestyle; but I chose a different route. Along the way, I encountered many disappointments, ups and downs, and close calls but I succeeded. This is the story of the FELON-ATTORNEY!

About the Author The Arthur Anthony Duncan II, Esq. is an attorney in Buffalo, New York. He was born in Los Angeles, California in 1969 to parents, The Arthur A. Duncan I and Betty Smith. However, The Arthur was primarily raised in Buffalo, New York by his grandparents, Reverend James V. Smith and his wife, Mary Jane. The Arthur's grandfather pastored his own church where, The Arthur was very active at a young age. He attended regularly, sang in the youth choir and even served as a junior deacon. He is affectionately called Tony or Tone by close friends and family, as his father is known as Big Tony. In grammar school in Buffalo, The Arthur was always the smartest one in his class and topped the honor roll every year. In 1982 when the schools were integrated in Buffalo and he was bused to a predominately white South Buffalo neighborhood school, he was voted the first black 8th grade class president. The Arthur left Buffalo the following year and moved back to Los Angeles to live with his mother and attend high school. After graduating from high school in Los Angeles and briefly attending college, The Arthur came back to Buffalo to visit and decided to stay. Thereafter, he began to sell drugs with some childhood friends and was eventually incarcerated for 3 years. Upon his release from prison, he was able to turn his life around; hence the subject of this book. Subsequently, The Arthur graduated from law school at age 43 in 2012 and was sworn into the New York State Bar in 2013. The Arthur is married to Latisha Duncan and has five children: Frankie, Joi, Isaiah, Lauren and Kimanie. He is also a deacon at First Calvary Missionary Baptist Church and servant leader in the church's Boys 2 Men mentoring ministry and marriage ministry. In his spare time, he enjoys spending time with his family, traveling and writing. To God Be the Glory!