Dr. Charles (Chuck) Shockley : Flying Through History before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Flying Through History:

This book tells the remarkable story of the flying career of the author. From war, to carrying some of Americas most powerful people internationally as Fortune 500 Corporations first Black Executive Pilot.

About the Author Not only has the author been involved in civil rights, but has co-produced video documentaries on General Benjamin O. Davis, Jr., commander of the WWII Tuskegee Airmen, and James Meredith at Ole Miss. He also produced a cable television series called The Small Business Workshop running for six years in San Diego, California. Shockley also became an army pilot, serving two tours of duty in Vietnam, earning 27 air medals. His picture is displayed in the San Diego Aerospace Museum as an historic Black pilot, breaking the color barrier as the first Black Executive Pilot for a Fortune 500 corporation.
