This book is a must read as I was there for part of these events and conversations I know this book is very accurate. This book shows everyone that even when your back is against the wall and everybody is against you and you have hope, drive and heart you can do anything! He spent 9 months in jail for an attempted murder charge, represented himself and won the case right here in story county IA! Please read! Nice Job! Love You Dad! 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. A must read. By Bridget Clayton I freely admit that Ron is a friend, that I personally know some involved, and have met others. Even if that were not true, I would still find this a very compelling story. I was riveted and stunned by many of the facts here. I got angry, cried, laughed, and got angry some more. The "justice system" had an epic fail fail on this one. Anyone interested in seeing how different people are treated in the system will find this an amazing story. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Good for Ron. By Chabon Read it from start to end in one sitting. Good for Ron, I live in a different state, but same messed up legal system, lawyers, DA's etc. Unless you have first hand knowledge of what goes on in our 'injustice system' you wouldn't understand. Ron tells it like it is! Lived in Ames until 1973, Interesting to hear Sporty's, Tip Top, Lincoln Lodge are included in story.

This is the harrowing true story of a man accused of attempted murder. He details life in jail, how he copes with it, and the events leading to his representing himself.

About the Author Ron Beaston lives in Story County Iowa with his fur baby Maizi. They enjoy camping with Ron's children, watching Iowa State Cyclone sports with friends, and playing with other dogs. Ron also enjoys riding his Harley-Davidson motorcycle and golfing.
