Whether you are looking to open a real estate practice, or just looking to expand your current practice, Getting Started as a Real Estate Attorney is your one-stop resource. Author Joseph R. Fortunato moves beyond the typical "how-to" guide and highlights the many practice areas that fall under the term "real estate attorney." With a strong focus on residential transactions, this book covers: What a real estate lawyer is, and how one goes about becoming one Discovering your sources of business

Understanding the many real estate contracts
Attorney review and inspection provisions
The interplay of real estate law with other areas of the law
And more!

About the Author Joseph R. Fortunato Jr. is a partner in the law firm Momkus McCluskey LLC of Lisle, Illinois, where he heads the Real Estate Practice Group. He is a past Chair of the ISBA Real Estate Section Council, a past Chair of the DuPage County Bar Association Real Estate Law Practice Committee, the former President of and current Board member of the Illinois Real Estate Lawyers Association, counsel to Mainstreet Organization of Realtors since 2001, a member of the drafting committee of the Multi-Board Residential Real Estate Contract (versions 3.0, 4.0, 5.0, 6.0 and 6.1), a frequent lecturer for the Illinois State Bar Association, the Illinois Institute for Continuing Legal Education and local bar associations. He has testified extensively as an opinion witness in cases involving real estate law issues.
