Philip Marsden : Handbook of Research in Trans-Atlantic Antitrust (Elgar Original Reference) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Handbook of Research in Trans-Atlantic Antitrust (Elgar Original Reference):

This comprehensive research Handbook brings together cutting-edge legal and economic analysis into antitrust issues by leading experts from Europe, the USA, Canada, Mexico and South America. The Handbook of Research in Trans-Atlantic Antitrust covers a wide-range of areas including: * the meaning of consumer welfare * mergers in monopsony markets * unilateral effects * private and criminal enforcement * implementing competition policy in regulated sectors * abuse of intellectual property rights * competition remedies * international enforcement cooperation * complainants' rights * dominant firm pricing * tying and bundling. The Handbook also includes discursive consideration of the similarities and differences among the various regimes on either side of the Atlantic, as well as a look to future trends and applications in regional and global contexts. Offering a comparative view of pressing antitrust issues, this Handbook will be of great interest to academics, lawyers, practitioners and officials.

'The book is handsomely produced by Edward Elgar. . . The notes contain more than citations and are well worth reading. A welcome feature is that after each set of notes there is a list of the most important writings on the topic followed by a list of the most important cases. Edward Elgar is well known in economic circles, hence the endnotes to which economists are accustomed. . . It has published several books on competition for lawyers over the last years and is a welcome entrant to the lawyers' market.' -- Valentine Korah, World Competition 'This extremely well done and important book collects writings by more than two dozen academics and practitioners on important topics in competition law. . . This is an excellent book, important for research by anyone who is serious about global or comparative competition policy. Nearly everyone engaged in serious research in the field will find something of value here.' -- Herbert Hovenkamp, European Law 'This Handbook assembles a valuable collection of insightful analyses dealing with many cutting-edge issues arising in modern antitrust enforcement on both sides of the Atlantic.' -- Philip Lowe, European Commission 'The contributions to this Handbook provide a comprehensive, up-to-date treatment of antitrust law in the Americas and Europe. I would recommend it to anyone who wants to learn about antitrust law and its administration in the major enforcement areas of the world. This is bound to become an important reference for antitrust students and experts.' -- Keith Hylton, Boston University, USA About the Author Edited by Philip Marsden, Director, Competition Law Forum and Senior Research Fellow, British Institute of International and Comparative Law, UK
