M. L. Harrison : Housing, 'Race', Social Policy and Empowerment (Research in Ethnic Relations Series) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Housing, 'Race', Social Policy and Empowerment (Research in Ethnic Relations Series):

This work explores a range of concerns in housing, social policy and ethnic relations. It offers an analysis of issues in the welfare state, drawing on empirical material from housing research. Topics covered include the black voluntary housing movement, the experiences of ethnic minority building contractors and the impact of racism in housing.
