Reports):

This 31-page research report, written for executives in the insurance business, examines in-depth, the laws that govern insurance litigation. From defending a claim step-by-step to hotly contested areas of insurance laws; from what to do when litigation is inevitable to what sort of cases take longer to resolve, this report covers the ins and outs of insurance litigation, touching on the important and highlighting the essential. Some areas explored include: the value of a complete coverage defense; the role of defense counsel; triggers, defined; McCarron Ferguson Act; and four types of business-related insurance. This Executive Report is written by: 1. Scott F. Bertschi, Partner and Chairman, Complex Insurance Services Team, Arnall Golden Gregory LLP, "Winning Defense Strategies"; 2. Clifford Masch, Partner, Reminger Reminger Co., L.P.A., "Battling the Tough Cases"; 3. Dirk W. de Roos, Partner, Faegre Benson LLP, "Insurance Defense Strategies"; 4. Kevin G. Fitzgerald, Esq., Attorney, Foley Lardner LLP, "Areas of Insurance Defense"; 5. David D. Knoll, Shareholder, Winstead Sechrest Minick PC, "Definitions and Examples for Successful Defense"; 6. Gregory A. Victor, Chairman, Tort and Insurance Department, Adorno Yoss LLP, "The Basics of Coverage Cases." About Executive Reports: Executive Reports offer focused, hard-hitting advice from the leaders of some of America's top companies, packaged in a concise, readable format. Each research report provides readers with 3 to 5 strategies that will have a direct financial impact on their business. While not meant as a comprehensive guide, each report includes quick-hit items that can immediately impact specific business strategies. Executive authors drill down to the central issues surrounding each topic area and dispense expert advice in concise, direct language. Executive Reports feature leading professionals selected by the Aspatore Editorial Board based on their experience, research, and standing within the professional community.
