Jr. Charles Herring, Jason Panzer : Texas Guide To Lawyer Disqualification before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Texas Guide To Lawyer Disqualification:

The Texas Guide to Lawyer Disqualification provides a practical roadmap for lawyers and litigants in determining whether to file or oppose a motion to disqualify counsel and how to litigate disqualification motions. The volume also analyzes state and federal caselaw in Texas concerning such issues as the role of the Texas disciplinary rules in disqualification proceedings, possible grounds for disqualification, and various defensive issues. The volume includes a list and classification of Texas court decisions addressing disqualification, as well as relevant opinions issued by the Texas Professional Ethics Committee.

About the Author Charles "Chuck" Herring, Jr. is a partner in the law firm of Herring Panzer, L.L.P. Since 1985, he has been Board Certified in Civil Trial Law. For many years he has practiced primarily the law of lawyering-handling legal malpractice cases, and dealing with a vast array of legal ethics and professional responsibility issues, including advising lawyers, law firms, government entities, and clients. For over 25 years he has been the author of Texas Legal Malpractice Lawyer Discipline (ALM rev. ed. 2015). He is coauthor with Professor Alex Albright of Handbook of Texas Discovery Practice (West Group rev. ed. 2015). The Texas Supreme Court has repeatedly appointed Chuck to its task forces and committees, including as Chair of the Statewide Task Force On Sanctions, and as a member of the Texas Supreme Court Advisory Committee, and a member of the Texas Supreme Court Grievance Oversight Committee. Chuck also has served on several State Bar of Texas committees, including as Chair of the Committee for the Prevention of Legal Malpractice. For many years, Chuck has taught at the Texas Center for Legal Ethics, instructing new lawyers on avoiding malpractice and grievance. Chuck also received the First Annual Professionalism Award from the Texas Center for Legal Ethics and the Travis County Bar Association. Before founding his current law firm, he was a litigation partner at Jones Day Reavis Pogue. He is an Honors graduate of the University of Texas School of Law, and clerked for United States District Judge Owen D. Cox. Jason Panzer is a partner in the law firm of Herring Panzer, L.L.P. For over 15 years, he has focused his practice principally on the litigation of professional and legal malpractice lawsuits, and consulting with both lawyers and clients regarding the ethical duties and responsibilities of lawyers in Texas. In 2010, he was named Texas Super Lawyers Rising Star in the area of Professional Liability Plaintiff by Thomson Reuters, printed in Texas Monthly Magazine. Before joining Herring Panzer, L.L.P., Mr. Panzer was with the law firm of Knisely, Prehoditch Panzer, P.C.
