Amy Elizabeth Stewart : Texas Insurance Coverage Litigation- The Litigator's Practice Guide before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Texas Insurance Coverage Litigation- The Litigator's Practice Guide:

The book is a practice guide for Texas litigators handling the occasional insurance coverage lawsuit or confronting insurance questions in the context of a litigation practice, complete with legal analysis, practical tips, forms, and annotations specific to Texas and Fifth Circuit practice. The book will focus on third party liability policies and related litigation and would tend to focus more on representation of policyholders, since the insurance industry tends to use coverage counsel for litigation of coverage disputes.

About the AuthorAmy Elizabeth StewartAmy Elizabeth Stewart is the founding shareholder of Amy Stewart PC, a boutique law firm in Dallas that represents corporations in disputes with their insurers. Amy conducts an active litigation practice involving complex insurance coverage and bad faith cases. She also provides advice on matters relating to risk management, policy procurement and renewals, pre-litigation disputes, and other contract issues implicating insurance or indemnity agreements. The firm represents a wide range of corporate policyholders, from Fortune 100 corporations and large privately-held companies to family-owned businesses, colleges, and professional services firms. Having spent many years representing insurance companies in coverage litigation, Amy has insight into the perspectives of both the insurer and the insured. Her experience and understanding of insurance law make her an invaluable resource to clients facing insurance coverage disputes, evaluating and renewing their insurance programs, managing communications with their insurers, and addressing other complex insurance issues. A Virginia native and graduate of the University of Virginia School of Law, Amy was named to the Texas Super Lawyers list of the Top 50 Women Lawyers in Texas and holds an AV rating by Martindale-Hubbell. She has also been included on D Magazines list of the Best Lawyers in Dallas and the Dallas Business Journals 2011 list of the Top 25 Women in Business. Amy is the immediate past chair for Attorneys Serving the Community, a Dallas legal philanthropic organization, and serves on the board of directors for Heart House, a non-profit after-school program in Dallas. Amy and her husband, Dean, live in Dallas with their two children, William and Caroline.
