Dawn Bradley Berry : The 50 Most Influential Women in American Law before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The 50 Most Influential Women in American Law:

The 50 Most Influential Women in American Law is a biographical gathering of important, intelligent, and powerful women who changed the face of America and its justice system. From colonial America's "Gentleman" Margaret Brent to prosecutor-turned-star Marcia Clark, this book tells the fascinating stories of some of the exceptional women in American law.-- Includes the stories of women who fought for the right to study and practice law-- Also includes modern women who are making an impact on the law
