Courthouse at Indian Creek: The First Five Years of the Greenbelt, Maryland, Federal Courthouse:

On October 15, 1991 there was a groundbreaking ceremony for the construction of a federal courthouse in Greenbelt, MD. Three years later it was ready to do the business of dispensing justice and continuing the judicial traditions of the United States. This book looks at a five-year span of the courthouse's activities and the fascinating cases that came across their collective benches.

Courthouse at Indian Creek forces readers to put the picture in proper focus. -- Legal Times, May 20, 2002
