Terence Ingman : The English Legal Process before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The English Legal Process:

The English Legal Process offers a clear and topical explanation of how the English legal system operates. The book explains the organization and procedures of courts and tribunals, the trial process and jury system, major forms of redress in private and public law, and discusses the way judges make and determine the law. Throughout, examples are drawn from a wide range of cases to help students to understand how court procedures are followed in the "real world." Online Resource Centre * Updates * Web links
