F.O.W. Vogelaar : The European Competition Rules: Landmark Cases of the European Courts and the Commission (Second Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The European Competition Rules: Landmark Cases of the European Courts and the Commission (Second Edition):

This book - designed as an introduction for students of EC competition law - provides a thorough selection of case law. The primary criterion for selection has been whether a particular case has contributed to the development of one of the doctrines or notions that are so important to the understanding of EC competition law. All cases and decisions have been incorporated with their key recitals and texts only, so as to make the amount of text easier to comprehend. Furthermore, for each case there is the mention of its relevance within the legal system and each case is accompanied with a short summary of its facts and circumstances. The sequence of cases follows a logical order in which EC competition law should be taught. The book includes cross-references which refer to relevant sources in Community legislation and Commission notices, a selection of further cases on the same issue, leading scholarly articles on the subject, and interesting annotations adding to the understanding of a particular case. The book also provides the legal practitioner or in-house counsel with invaluable and time-saving background information in this important field of the law.
