Arist von Hehn : The Internal Implementation of Peace Agreements after Violent Intrastate Conflict (International Humanitarian Law) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Internal Implementation of Peace Agreements after Violent Intrastate Conflict (International Humanitarian Law):

This book is at heart a guide on how to best approach the management of an internally-led peace implementation process after a violent intrastate conflict. It explains the principal tasks, legal framework and management implications of internal peace implementation and illustrates this with many examples of best practice as well as possible pitfalls. The book integrates a broad analysis of current academic research with a substantial number of interviews with experts from the field. With a foreword by Nobel Peace Prize Laureate President Martti Ahtisaari.

About the Author Arist von Hehn Doctorate in Law, European University Viadrina Frankfurt (Oder), Masters in International Human Rights and Humanitarian Law (LL.M.), Lund University, was trained as a lawyer and mediator in Germany and worked in Northern Ireland in relation to human rights and as a management consultant during the Aceh peace process.
