Benedetto Conforti, Luigi Ferrari Bravo, Francesco Francioni (General Editor), Natalino Ronzitti, Giorgio Sacerdoti, Riccardo Pavoni (Associate Editor) (Eds.) : The Italian Yearbook of International Law, Volume 17 (2007) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Italian Yearbook of International Law, Volume 17 (2007):

"The Italian Yearbook of International Law" aims at making accessible to the English speaking public the Italian contribution to the practice and literature of international law. Volume XVII (2007) is organised in three main sections. The first contains doctrinal contributions on the timely issue of the individual right of access to justice and focuses on the Inter-American human rights system, on remedies against acts of international organisations and UN Security Council's targeted sanctions, and on the participation of amici curiae in investor-State arbitrations. This section includes also shorter notes on current developments in the field of private military contractors and foreign direct investment in the development of cultural heritage, as well as surveys of the practice of ICJ, ITLOS, international criminal tribunals, WTO, ICSID, and the ECtHR. The second section covers the Italian practice in the areas of judicial decisions; diplomatic and parliamentary practice; treaty practice; and national legislation. The third section contains a systematic bibliographical index of Italian literature in the field of international law and reviews of recent books. The volume ends with an analytical index for ready consultation that includes the main judicial cases and legal instruments cited throughout the "Yearbook".
