Nancy Staudt : The Judicial Power of the Purse: How Courts Fund National Defense in Times of Crisis (Chicago Series on International and Domestic Institutions) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Judicial Power of the Purse: How Courts Fund National Defense in Times of Crisis (Chicago Series on International and Domestic Institutions):

"A significant advance on conventional wisdom about judicial behavior during wartime emergencies. With admirable clarity, Nancy Staudt provides evidence that the judiciary is an active partner in crisis governance - finding ways to put pools of cash at the government's disposal when it does not use its taxing powers aggressively enough." (Eric Posner, University of Chicago Law School)"About the AuthorNancy Staudt is the Edward G. Lewis Chair in Law at the University of Southern California Gould School of Law.
