Ralph Sistrunk : The Jury's Back before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Jury's Back:

2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Ambition and HumorBy Donald J. MabryThe Jury's BackRalph Sistrunk, orphaned as a teenager while living in Jacksonville Beach, Florida, still managed to graduate from Duncan U. Fletcher Junior-Senior High School and from college and law school, serving in the military along the way. He tells a good story about these adventures but the book focuses more on his practice of law in Jacksonville. Who would have thought that a few funny stories could capture the spirit of Jacksonville as it emerged into a major city?Sistrunk was very successful as an attorney; he's also successful as a storyteller.

About the AuthorRalph Sistrunk and his wife Kathy and two Yorkies live in Jacksonville, Florida on a spectacular knoll overlooking a serene lake and the eleventh hole of the golf course he once saved from a real estate developer's destruction. Their union has been blessed with five children, ten grandchildren and nine great grandchildren (and counting). Now retired from the active practice of law, he still performs pro bono, (for free) for those in need. He entertains with tireless humor and passion for life and through this book he shares his journey from a hungry orphan, delivering newspapers, to a successful trial lawyer and real estate entrepreneur. His mother would be proud.
