Colin Edelman, Andrew Burns, David Craig, Akash Nawbatt : The Law of Reinsurance before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Law of Reinsurance:

Written by a team of specialists in the field, this new book is a must have for all those dealing with reinsurance law matters. It fills the gap for a much needed specialist text on reinsurance that is both practical and authoritative. This is a fully discursive text that states the position under the current law and applies it to practice. Every aspect of reinsurance law practice is covered beginning with an investigation of the definition, purpose and types of reinsurance.

Guidance is given on contractual principles and terms in the reinsurance context, obligations, rights and liabilities of the reinsurer, and the choice of law.

About the Author Colin Edelman QC is a barrister in practice at Devereux Chambers in London. Having graduated from Clare College, Cambridge, he was called to the Bar in 1977 and became a Queen's Counsel in 1995. He was elected Head of Chambers in 2002 and a Bencher of Middle Temple in 2003. In 1993 he was appointed an Assistant Recorder and became a Recorder in 1996. His practice is predominantly in the fields of insurance, reinsurance and professional negligence and he is often appointed as an arbitrator in insurance and reinsurance disputes. Andrew Burns is a barrister at Devereux Chambers. David Craig is a barrister at Devereux Chambers. Akash Nawbatt is a barrister at Devereux Chambers.
