From Martinus Nijhoff : The Palestine Yearbook of International Law Volume 15 (2009) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Palestine Yearbook of International Law Volume 15 (2009):

Under the inaugural editorship of Ardi Imseis, volume 15 of the Palestine Yearbook of International Law is devoted, in part, to examining the persistence of the Question of Palestine through the lens of the Third World

Approaches to International Law school of thought. In addition to this cutting edge legal critique of the prevailing situation in the occupied Palestinian territory and beyond, this volume includes an article devoted to an assessment of whether the December 2009-January 2010 hostilities in the Gaza Strip amounted to an act of aggression under international law. The volume also includes book reviews and relevant documentation produced by various organs of the United Nations on the Occupied Palestinian Territory, including relevant UN reports, judicial decisions of national courts, and the Executive Summary of the United Nations Fact Finding Mission on the Gaza Conflict, headed by Judge Richard Goldstone. The impact and findings of the Goldstone Commission will be further analyzed in future volumes of the Yearbook
