The Right of an Alien to Be Protected Against Arbitrary Expulsion in International Law:

In The Right of an Alien to be Protected against Arbitrary Expulsion in International Law Julia Wojnowska-Radziska offers a comprehensive legal study of international legal obligations of States for the protection of aliens lawfully residing against arbitrary expulsion. It also provides practical information on administrative proceedings, legal remedies and procedural rights aliens exercise. The book aims at answering a fundamental question how to strike a balance between the inherent right of a State to expel an alien and the rights the latter is entitled to. The reader will therefore be given a survey of the subject that is both usefully brief and sufficiently detailed to answer most questions likely to arise in any pertinent legal setting.

About the Author Julia Wojnowska-Radziska, Ph.D. (2012), lecturer at the Chair of Constitutional Law, Faculty of Law and Administration, Adam Mickiewicz University in Pozna (Poland) and former expert for legislation in the Bureau of Research, Chancellery of the Sejm in Warsaw (Poland). She has published several articles in the field of international human rights law regarding migrants, in particular.
