Tathiana Acuna : The United Nations Mission in El Salvador:A Humanitarian Law Perspective (Legal Aspects of International Organization) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The United Nations Mission in El Salvador:A Humanitarian Law Perspective (Legal Aspects of International Organization):

The United Nations Observer Mission in El Salvador (ONUSAL) is the result of dialogue and negotiation between the Salvadorian Government and the Farabundo Marti National Liberation Front (FMLN). It constitutes the first UN attempt to mediate the settlement of a non-international armed conflict. This work studies the benefits and disadvantages intrinsic to a political body in monitoring the respect for international humanitarian law, and analyzes new requirements demanded by the enlargement of the functions of the UN. The analysis is based on the reports of the ONUSAL, prepared during its peace-making phase, and focuses on the question of the extent to which the mission succeeded in assuring a better protection of the norms of humanitarian law. The work is based on a Ph.D. thesis originally written in French. Tathiana Flores Acuna received her doctorate from the European University Institute in Florence in 1994. She now works for the Organization of American States in Costa Rica.
